NEW YORK POST

The screenshot shows the New York Post website interface. At the top, there is a navigation bar with links for "Today's Paper", "Login", "Register", "Classifieds", "Archives", and "Home Delivery". A search bar is located on the right. Below the navigation bar, there is a weather icon and the "NEW YORK POST" logo. A banner for "SONIA RYKIEL" is visible, featuring models and a "Sweater $39.95" offer. The main content area is titled "NYC FASHIONWEEK" and "2010 FALL COLLECTIONS". A "Photos" section is active, displaying a gallery of models from the "La Perla fall 2010 fashion show". The gallery includes a "Comment" button and a "VIEW ALL PHOTOS" link. The caption for the gallery reads: "La Perla fall 2010 fashion show" by "ANTHONY J. CAPO" (2 of 9). The text below the caption states: "Models pose at the La Perla show, which showcased its Fall 2010 collection during New York Fashion Week." A "PHOTO GALLERY HOME" link is also present. On the left and right sides of the gallery, there are promotional images for "MON PULL Rykiel" sweaters, priced at "$39.95" and "$29.95" respectively.
